

Prepare to work safely in the construction industry - CPCCWHS1001

Module purpose	This unit of competency specifies the outcomes required to undertake Work Health and Safety (WHS) induction training within the construction industry. It requires the ability to demonstrate personal awareness of WHS legislative requirements, and the basic principles of risk management and prevention of injury and illness in the construction industry.
For whom	All personnel required to work within the construction industry.
Prerequisites	Nil
Summary of Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• WHS legislative requirements responsibilities and rights of duty holders• Own responsibilities to comply with safe work practices• Role of WHS committees and representatives• Common construction hazards• Basic principles of risk management.• WHS hierarchy of controls• Reporting construction hazards and risks• Safety signs and symbols• General construction emergency response and evacuation procedures• First aid response requirements• Procedures for raising WHS issues• Reporting WHS hazards, accidents, incidents, emergencies, injuries, near misses and dangerous occurrences• Responding to hazards, incidents and injuries• Workers' compensation and injury management requirements• Construction work activities that require licenses, tickets or certificates of competency• Personal protective equipment and fire safety equipment
Delivery and Assessment Method	Classroom face to face delivery and small group activities. Assessed with a written assessment.
Planned duration	Training session: Initial training: 8 hrs Assessment: 30 minutes
Class Size	Maximum of 12 participants

