

UEEEL0078 Install and commission whole current electricity meters

Module purpose This unit involves the skills and knowledge required to the install, configure and commission whole current electricity meters comprised of single-element, multi-element (Multi-Tariff) and polyphase, for measurement of energy for end use consumers.

For whom This unit is essential training for persons responsible for installing and replacing whole current metering under choice of supplier arrangements, power system energy meters and associated equipment.
This can include;

- Distribution Lineworker's
- Distribution Cable Jointers
- Electro technology Electricians.

Prerequisites Granting of competency in this unit shall be made only after competency in the following unit(s) has/have been confirmed.

Unit Code	Unit Title
UEEEL0039	Design, install and verify compliance and functionality of general electrical installations
UETDRRF004	Perform rescue from a live LV panel

Delivery and Assessment Method Classroom face to face delivery and small group activities. Assessed with multiple written and practical assessment completing a variety of tasks.

Planned duration Training session:
Initial: 16 hours
Written Assessment: 2 x 60-minute assessments
Practical Assessment: 2 x 60-minute assessments
Maximum of 8 participants.

